These external factors include Acts of God, weather conditions, terrorism, riots, wars, pandemics, labor disputes and strikes, fire, conditions of golf carts, buses, and other equipment, conditions of golf courses and other terrain, and action or inaction of governments, transportation entities, resort owners or operators, golf course owners or operators, other entities, other golfers, and individuals.

Participation in any activity sponsored by the Club is entirely voluntary, and each participant must exercise judgment and care at all times to minimize the risk of inconvenience, injury, or death, to herself or himself, other members of the Club, and all other persons. The Club serves only as the sponsor of activities, and the Club and its directors, officers, trip leaders, event coordinators, and other employees, will not be responsible for or liable for any inconvenience, injury, or death that occurs during or as a result of participation in a sponsored activity.

A member who wishes to cancel a reservation for an event must provide written notification to the trip leader or the event coordinator. Reservations ARE NOT TRANSFERABLE by members and all changes must be made by the Club. The trip leader or event coordinator will attempt to locate a replacement from a waiting list or by other means within his or her discretion. AFTER TRIP COMPLETION, Club will refund the amount paid to the Club less its actual expenses and a handling and processing fee that is:

Members are responsible for making payments according to the payment schedule for the event or trip. If payments are not received in accordance with the schedule, the trip leader or event coordinator in his or her discretion may offer the reserved space to others.
